2) Equality Act 2010

The council is required by the government to record numbers of applicants protected by the Disability Discrimination Act 1995. This information is also important in monitoring the success of Council policies and initiatives that aim to attract more applications from people with disabilities.

The Equality Act 2010 protects people who:

- have an impairment
- are disabled
- have long-term health conditions

This is providing that this has a "substantial and long term" adverse effect on a person's ability to carry out normal day-to-day activities". Long term is defined as 12 months or longer (or, if the condition is a new one, the expectation that it will be 12 months or longer).

Equality Act Do you think that you have a disability in accordance with the terms of Equality Act 2010?	Yes <input type="checkbox"/>	No <input type="checkbox"/>

Office Use Only: Shortlisted Appointed

Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974

All posts within the Multi Academy Trust involve direct or indirect contact with children. As a result, we are exempt from the requirements of the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974. Therefore, you are required to reveal any current or past convictions, cautions or bind-overs, that are both “spent” and “unspent” as these may have a bearing on your suitability to be employed within a school environment. The information you give will be treated in the strictest confidence.

Failure to declare a conviction, caution or bind-over may however disqualify you from appointment or result in disciplinary action, up to and including summary dismissal if the discrepancy comes to light.

Do you have any convictions that are spent or unspent under the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974?
